Inspire ~ Nurture ~ Celebrate

Dear Families,

It has been a very busy and exciting week for Torpel! On Monday, they travelled by train to London. After travelling by underground and walking to South Bank, the children visited the Tower of London to support their history learning on Tudors. They were astounded to see the magnificent Crown Jewels on display and look around the building.

Throughout the rest of the week, Torpel have been very busy preparing for their Christmas Fayre, which took place this morning! This has been very successful, lots of fun and enjoyed by all children throughout the school. Torpel look forward to telling you how much they have raised - profits will be shared between the Friends of John Clare School and Macmillan.

As we enter the last couple of weeks of term, we are very much looking forward to our Christmas productions and festivities.

Very best wishes,
Mrs Nicolson
