Inspire - Nurture - Celebrate

Dear Parents/Carers

At John Clare School, all of the teachers try to make us read more, but not everyone does. I am writing to ask all parents and carers to encourage reading at home, at school, at relatives, in fact absolutely anywhere.

I (Caitlin W), Amélie, Izzie and Sharifa run the school library with Mrs Bacon. We are opening it very soon, but we don't just want children to read and borrow books, we are also running a reading competition for who reads the most at home or anywhere. Children have to read to an adult, the adult must sign to say the child has read to them. I hope to see many children in the library.

Caitlin W (Library Monitor)

Mrs Bacon and the Library Monitors have been very busy working on the library. As a school, we constantly aim to promote a love of reading. Over this year we will be updating our books in school and providing lots of reading opportunities. Not only do good books transport you to another place, they are also invaluable to the development of spelling and mathematical skills.

Best wishes

Mrs Simmons
