School Noticeboard

Dear Parents/Carers

Thank you for sending your children to school in warm clothing. The children have had a great week; we have managed to keep all of the classrooms warm and have had to remind children to wear their warm clothes as they keep taking their jumpers off!

The hunt for the 'missing' yellow trike continues and Woodgate have been dressing up as different fairy tale characters to find out more information.

At the end of last week, Broadwheel held a lively debate on whether or not the Moon Man should be sent to jail or set free. They had lots of well thought out arguments to support either side of the case.

We also received a very kind donation of six boxes of books from an ex-pupil. Most of these have gone to Broadwheel. The children are so delighted with the books they have written a card and letters of thanks.

Best wishes
Mrs Simmons
