Dear Parents/Carers

All of the children have demonstrated resilience and determination this week. KS1 have been practising their ballet skills with the Northern Ballet Company. We also managed to get an extra session for Broadwheel.

Reception children have been out in all weathers learning to ride a bike with the help of Bikeability. Some of our older children have also been securing their riding skills. The instructor was impressed with the children's attitude to learning. He completed all of his lessons in three days instead of four!

Broadwheel have set up a courtroom to find out if the main character in their book is guilty of stealing apples. After questioning the witnesses the jury decided that Noah Barleywater was innocent.

Torpel's science topic on evolution has prompted lots of debate and interesting questions on genetics and cloning. The children have been making Mrs Nicolson work hard this week!

Best wishes

Mrs Simmons
