Dear Parents/Carers

Yesterday, our Soke Education Trust Ambassadors visited Gunthorpe Primary to join the Ambassadors from the other Trust schools. They spent the day interviewing children and finding out more about each other.

They were participating in a project commissioned by the French Ministry for Education and were interviewed and filmed by the production company. The production company are making a documentary on different education systems around Europe. Not only did they film the children they also interviewed: Jonathan Lewis, Service Director for Education (Cambridgeshire and Peterborough), Claire Spooner, Chair of Soke Education Trust, and me.

This is an extensive project with filming still to be completed in Sweden, Finland, Romania, France and Germany.

Best wishes

Mrs Simmons
