Inspire ~ Nurture ~ Celebrate

Dear Families,

office@johnclareprimary.org

19th September 2025

Today, we have been delighted to receive notification that we have received the Music Mark Recognition Award for Dedication and Improvement.

We are committed to providing a broad and balanced curriculum at John Clare and are pleased that our music provision has been recognised.

As our new reception children are fully settled into life at John Clare, we are already thinking about next academic year's new starters. Our viability as a school is dependent on sustaining school numbers, and these in turn help us to continue with the high-quality provision that we aim to provide for every single child. If you are aware of any families looking for school places, please encourage them to visit us during our Open Day on Monday 6th October, or ask them to contact the school office - children do not need to be in catchment to apply!

Best wishes,

Mrs Nicolson
