Inspire ~ Nurture ~ Celebrate

Dear Families,

office@johnclareprimary.org

10th October 2025

Proud has to be the word of the week! On Monday, we welcomed many prospective families into school during our Open Day. Our visitors were given a comprehensive tour of the school by our Year 5 and 6 children and it was evident to every visitor how well-mannered and proud of their school our children are. The feedback we received from visiting families was amazing!

On Tuesday, we had a visit from our Independent School Improvement Inspector, Mr Shevlin. He stated that our school is, 'A happy place where learners thrive.' His report also said that during his learning walk, 'There was evidence of consistent high expectations, such as teacher/pupil interactions, use of a range of teaching techniques, and pupils' learning behaviours (which were exemplary).'

Today, we have celebrated the importance of happiness and enabling children to thrive, by participating in the 'Hello Yellow' campaign. Children have thoroughly enjoyed showing their support to the Young Minds charity through wearing something yellow - we have seen some spectacular outfits! Thank you to everyone who has donated to this important charity - together we can help support our young people with their mental health.

Best wishes,
Mrs Nicolson
